

Luz María Gabriela Hernandez Cardoso

Director

Ms. Hernandez is a lawyer with vast experience in both the public and private sectors. In 2010, she was appointed president and CEO of GE Mexico. In this role, Gabriela was responsible for the operations and growth of the company in the country. In 2013, she was named Latin America General Counsel for General Electric.

Prior to joining GE, Ms. Hernandez worked in the Mexican government, holding positions in the NAFTA negotiation team, Under-Attorney for Consumer Protection and in the Ministry of Communications and Transportation, first as general director for telecommunications and then as undersecretary for communications, a presidential appointment.

In the private sector, Ms. Hernandez has had experience in corporate law and international trade, working in companies such as Motorola and Tellabs Inc. She has lectured in public and private institutions on both law and international trade. Ms. Hernandez is an active board member of corporations, think tanks, universities, and nonprofit organizations. She is also an advisor to Grupo Kaluz.

Ms. Hernandez earned her law degree with honors from Escuela Libre de Derecho, where she also completed postgraduate studies. She was a Yale Greenberg World Fellow in 2016.